- 4. The Administrative Branch, under the Second Deputy, was subdivided as follows:
 - a. The Section of Finance Accounting (Oddeleni Financhiho Ucetniho) was in charge of preparing the financial plan for the Main Administration. It also kept a periodic check on progress in fulfilling the financial plan.
 - b. The Section of General Accounting (Oddeleni Hlavniho Ucetniho) handled the daily bookkeeping entries of the Main Administration.
 - c. The Supply Section (Zasobovaci Oddeleni) estimated the needs for materials, supplies, and equipment of the plants and factories under the First Main Administration and presented them to the Supply Branch of the Third Vice-Ministry. The Supply Section was the only section in the First Main Administration which presented the needs for materials to the Supply Branch; the plants and factories did not contact the Supply Branch of the Office of the Third Vice-Minister but had to go through this Supply Section.
 - d. The Wages and Labor Section (Oddeleni pro Prace a Mzdy) supervised and coordinated the planning for wages and production norms for workers, the wages and labor sections in the plants and factories.
 - The Security Section (Oddeleni Bezpecnosti) was responsible for the physical security of the First Main Administration and the plants and factories subordinate to the First Main Administration. It carried out its work for the First Main Administration as the Security Branch did for the Ministry. For organization of this statistry at the Ministerial level

- f. The Cadre Section (Oddeleni Kadrove) performed functions for the First Main Administration similar to those the Cadre Division did for the Ministry. It did not operate schools for workers or approve passports for foreign travel, inasmuch as these functions were handled only by the Cadre Division of the Ministry.
- 5. The first three main administrations were under the supervision of the First Vice-Minister, Ing. (fnu) NEUMAN. the 25X1 names of the heads of these main administrations. The deputy for the Technical Branch of the First Main Administration was Chief Engineer (fnu) KLOUBEC.
- 6. The Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Main Administrations were under the supervision of the Second Vice-Minister, Dr. Ing. (fnu) SVAB. The Fourth Main Administration was headed by (fnu) BUDINSKY, the Fifth Main Administration by Ing. (fnu) SIPAL, the Sixth Main Administration by (fnu) JAVORIK, and the Seventh Main Administration by Ing. (fnu) PITONAKOVA.
